| | MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECO | RD | | ! |
| | SUBJECT: USIA Request for an | n Ideological Study of | Chinese Communism | 25X1 |
| The second secon | 1. Ed Carroll asked me at lunch today if it was possible to undertake subject study inasmuch as State Department was not in a position to do so. The study he explained (and later showed me a copy of an internal memorandum on the subject) would be a thorough and scholarly presentation of Chinese Communism theory, practice, and public statements. I told him that I believed a certain amount of work had been done in this field about a year ago and that if I remembered correctly, FDD had analyzed Chinese Communist leaders' (both political and intellectual) statements and writings with a view to determining the extent, if any, they deviate from the Marx, Engels, Lenin, Stalin approxing fact, FDD tried to determine whether Mao Tsung should be added to the lineage. I assured him that I would check and see what was available. | | | |
